The distinctive H shape creates sheltered areas front and back, with a large, fenced deck capturing sun and harbour views. Living areas flow around the deck for seamless indoor-outdoor connection, and the main bedroom opens directly to it.

Ample daylight fills the home, with scissor trusses adding height to the living and dining rooms. Follow the curved, panelled wall from the kitchen through the spacious entrance hall to the bedrooms, including a main with ensuite and walk-in robe, and a third bedroom tucked behind the kitchen. This modern home features stone benchtops, tiled bathrooms, and a mix of carpet, tile, and hardwood flooring. Weathertex weatherboard cladding keeps the exterior sleek and inviting
