It starts as it means to go on, with a dramatic entryway and high-raking ceilings that offer a distinctive introduction to the spacious open-plan living areas. Four bedrooms and two bathrooms make up this home, which has been designed to suit a variety of lifestyles and never go out of style. The heart of the single-level home is the open-plan living and dining area with a designer kitchen. But if you prefer to relax, you could always retreat to the separate lounge with recessed ceiling that doubles as a media room. Open up the doors and go with the outside flow: there's truly plenty of space to play on this 2785sqm section.
