From its eye-catching angular rooflines to the crisp finish on the entry wall, this three-bedroom home was built to be the best in design, materials and craftsmanship. The main bedroom has been given an extra touch of luxe with a feature tray ceiling that combines with grey walls for a timeless aesthetic. The tiled ensuite offers a luxurious retreat with a freestanding bath. In the kitchen, dark cabinetry is complemented with touches of brushed brass tapware and handles. An entire corner of the kitchen and living area opens out to decking. With a pergola to protect against the elements, this area can be used as an additional living space throughout the year. .
