A house with presence was required as our Tauranga shopfront and show home. Located on busy Fifteenth Avenue, rising up from the land is this bold 218sqm home clad in Linea weatherboard and topped with tiles. Potential buyers can explore the standard and upgraded fittings offered by Jennian within the property. For instance, the main bathroom adheres to the original plans, while the ensuite has been given extra attention. Regardless of the chosen design, the home boasts various features, such as a timber staircase with a floor-to-ceiling screen, a covered patio accessible via stacking doors, and a pendant light that illuminates the stairwell. The lower level offers a comfortable living space with open plan dining, lounge, and kitchen area.
